CHV2O Course Culminating

Overview

Upon completion of the lessons and the assigned readings, you should have a good grasp on what it means to live and participate in a democratic society. Understanding and expressing your civic opinions starts here in CHV2O.

The culminating project is worth 30% of the final grade. Failure to complete this culminating project will compromise receiving the credit for this course.

The culminating tasks consist of four sections. Each of the sections gives you the opportunity to outline what is important with regards to your civic beliefs.

PART A: PERSONAL VALUES (½ page response)

TASK/QUESTION: Identify what you see as the five most important right and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship. Rank these rights from 1-5 and justify your ranking in a well-constructed paragraph.

Total 10 marks

PART B: POLITICAL PARTIES AND YOUR VALUES

TASK/QUESTION: Review the following websites and review Unit 1 Activity 11 content

Liberal Party www.liberal.ca
Conservative Party www.conservative.ca
New Democrats www.ndp.ca
Bloc Quebecois www.blocquebecois.ca
Green Party www.green.ca

Question 1
In a well-constructed paragraph explain which political party would you support? Defend your answer by outlining the political party’s strengths and weaknesses. (10 marks)

Question 2
When did the last provincial election take place? What were the results? If you were of voting age would you have been happy with the outcome? Support your answer. (10 marks)

20 marks

To “support your answer,” the teacher wants to see evidence of fact (research) as the basis for your opinion.
